ME AND MY GIRL

At Hareford Hall in Hampshire, suspense is in the air. The family solicitor has found the long-lost heir to the Hareford title and riches, however he's a Cockney barrow boy called Bill Snibson. The Duchess sets out to transform him into a true gentleman, Bill's sweetheart Sally wonders how she fits into his new life! Before too long, Billy has to answer some soul-searching questions about who he really is! This uproarious, much loved musical comedy includes popular numbers like The Sun Has Got His Hat On and Lambeth Walk.

The revised version by Stephen Fry and Mike Ockrent won the 1985 Laurence Olivier Award for Best Musical. The new staging is by the team behind Festival 2017's hit musical Fiddler on the Roof (our last year's trip).
