

VISIT TO

SPENCER HOUSE & QUEEN'S GALLERY

ON MONDAY
SEPTEMBER 25TH

Spencer House tour at 11.30

Queen's Gallery at 2.15

COST: £22

Here is your chance to visit both the Canaletto and the Art of Venice exhibition at The Queen's Gallery, and have a guided tour of Spencer House. Both are within easy walking distance of each other.

Spencer House was recognised as one of the most ambitious aristocratic town houses ever built in London and is the city's only great 18thC private palace to survive intact. This magnificent aristocratic palace has regained its full splendour after a 10 year restoration. We are able to visit 8 State Rooms (all fully accessible). You will have time to go to a café (not included in price) or bring a sandwich to eat in the park before visiting The Queen's Gallery. The Royal Collection contains the world's finest group of paintings, drawings and prints by Venice's most famous painter, Canaletto (1697-1768), and others. The exhibition presents a spectacular selection of 18thC Venetian art showing the splendours and many delights of Venice at this time.

The nearest Tube station is Green Park (Jubilee or Piccadilly line) from where Spencer House can be reached with a short walk through the park.

We only have 20 tickets so please book asap

If you have mobility difficulties or need the help of a carer please contact Arts Richmond in advance of booking to discuss what arrangements might be necessary.
