Richmond upon Thames Performing Arts Festival 2017

Richmond upon Thames Performing Arts Festival offers performance opportunities to people of all ages in the arts of Music, Dance and Speech. Founded in 1929, it is affiliated to the British and International Federation of Festivals and is a registered charity.

Musicians at a previous festival.

This year's Festival will be held on Sunday 21 May at Normansfield Theatre, Langdon Down Centre, 2a Langdon Park Teddington, Middlesex TW11 9PS. It is divided into five categories which are 1) the Piano Section, 2) Speech & Drama, 3) Dance, 4) Vocal and 5) Instrumental. It promises to be a very vibrant day, full of talent, and gives the borough's gifted residents a chance to shine.

Are you interested in getting involved with the vibrant, enthusiastic festival team who are passionate about supporting the arts in the Richmond area? If you would like to help in any way please contact Pam Frazer (tel: 020 8893 8656) or Margaret Warden (tel: 020 8288 9517) who will be delighted to hear from you, or email info@richmondfestival.org.uk
